

KM Gopakumar

Author, Senior Researcher & Legal Advisor — Third World Network (TWN)

Profile Summary

KM Gopakumar is a respected international policy analyst and researcher specializing in global trade, intellectual property rights, public health policy, and economic development issues. As a Senior Researcher and Legal Advisor at Third World Network (TWN), he provides critical insights into multilateral negotiations, global power dynamics, and economic justice for developing nations. His work supports policymakers, civil society, and global institutions working toward equitable development.

PLC 4.0 Session by KM Gopakumar

Geopolitics & Global Economic Trends: Bharat's Place in the Changing World Order

Key Achievements

- Contributed to major global policy dialogues on trade, IP rights, and access to essential medicines.
- Advised governments and international institutions on development-oriented policy frameworks.
- Published influential research on WTO negotiations, global economic governance, and public health rights.
- Known for his deep analysis of geopolitical trends impacting emerging economies like Bharat.
- Recognized globally for advocating equity, fairness, and sustainable development in international agreements.

- Technical & Research Expertise
- Global Trade, WTO Policies & International Law
- Intellectual Property Rights & Public Health Policy
- Geopolitics, Development Economics & Global Governance
- Treaty Negotiations & Policy Advocacy
- Research, Publications & Capacity Building

Professional Expertise

- Constitutional & Administrative Law
- Business Law, GST Litigation & Regulatory Compliance
- Policy Advisory, Law Reforms & Governance
- Commercial Dispute Resolution
- Legal Strategy, Representation & Public Policy Analysis

Work With DISHA Foundation / PLC (Custom Section)

- Supported global awareness sessions for students, researchers, and entrepreneurs on international economics.
- Contributed expertise to programs focused on India's role in global markets, trade justice, and development policy.

Legacy

KM Gopakumar is widely respected for his balanced and insightful analysis of global economic systems. His work strengthens India's understanding of international dynamics and inspires future leaders to engage thoughtfully with global challenges.