

Shri Ram Madhav

Author & President, India Foundation

Profile Summary

Shri. Ram Madhav is a renowned author, thinker, and strategic affairs expert, currently serving as the President of India Foundation, a leading policy think tank. Widely respected for his deep understanding of geopolitics, foreign policy, and civilizational perspectives, he brings a nuanced and India-centric view to global affairs. His work focuses on interpreting global power shifts and articulating Bharat's strategic role in an evolving international order.

PLC 4.0 Session by Shri Ram Madhav

Geopolitics & Global Economic Trends: Bharat's Place in the Changing World Order

Key Achievements

- President of India Foundation, contributing to policy research and strategic dialogue on national and global issues.
- Authored influential books and essays on Indian culture, ideology, geopolitics, and global affairs.
- A prominent voice in international forums on India's foreign policy and strategic positioning.
- Actively engaged with policymakers, academics, and thought leaders across the world.
- Recognized for articulating an indigenous, forward-looking perspective on global challenges.

Professional Expertise

- Geopolitics & International Relations
- Global Economic Trends & Strategic Trade
- Foreign Policy Analysis & Diplomacy
- Civilizational Studies & Strategic Thought
- Think Tank Leadership & Policy Research

Work With DISHA Foundation / PLC (Custom Section)

- Delivered strategic insights on global trends and their implications for Bharat's future.
- Engaged youth and leaders in discussions on national interest, global responsibility, and leadership.
- Supported PLC's vision of nurturing informed, globally aware, and policy-conscious citizens.

Legacy

Shri. Ram Madhav is celebrated for shaping informed discourse on India's role in global geopolitics and economics. His thought leadership inspires a confident, values-driven approach to navigating the changing world order while positioning Bharat as a responsible and influential global power.